

City & Police Federal Credit Union is in the process of converting our credit card program and has placed a temporary hold on accepting new applications until the new program is implemented. We anticipate the new applications will be available by February 1, 2012. If you would like for us to mail you an application at that time, please fill out the form below and turn it in to any of our branches. Thank you for your patience.

Yes! I am interested in learning about the new credit card program which will be implemented in February 2012. Please send me an application and information about the program as soon as it becomes available.
